The books were our only witness, until he pushed me up against the window in full view of the entire university

I came to this university so I could be close to him. Unfortunately, during our time here, I didn't get to see him much. I suppose that was bound to happen once he became the all star quarterback. With everybody clamoring for his time, I was falling further and further down his list of priorities.

That is until he asked me for help to pass his midterm. If he needed a favor, I was going to get something I wanted too. So instead of studying in the library like we should have, he gave me my first experience in all three holes, raw and unprotected.
