The Spanish Subjunctive Explained & More: Over 100 Examples (Spanish Edition) Iris Acevedo A.

The idea of creating The Spanish Subjunctive Project I came to me after 30 years' experience teaching Spanish as a Foreign Language in my dear Costa Rica.

The Spanish Subjunctive Mood is not difficult to learn; nevertheless, it does require an extensive amount of work, dedication and practice on behalf of the student. Although teachers are often more than willing to spend a great amount of classroom time on providing students with activities to achieve the goal, they are not always able to make such an effort due to time constraints in a traditional Spanish language School environment.

It was with this in mind that CostaRica SpanishOnline began to create teaching materials available for the independent learner and teachers as well. The Spanish Subjunctive Project I. provides simple explanations of the uses of The Present Subjunctive, more than sixty different examples as well as, a glimpse of the Imperfect Subjunctive Mood and The Present Perfect Subjunctive.
