Good-bye Mr. Chips / by James Hilton James Hilton

This is the First Edition, with the Original Dustcover, of this wonderful novel, published by Grosset & Dunlap New York in 1934. It is illustrated by the English artist Ernest Townsend, and the jacket copy was written by Algonquin Round Table member Alexander Woollcott. The edges of the dust jacket are a little damaged but this book is pristine. It has never been read--it has never been opened and many of the pages are still stuck together. And the covers are flawless. Plus, there's a note of interest. On the inside front cover, a Christmas tag has been affixed. It reads 'To Mr & Mrs Morrow from The Bradburys'. The Bradburys gave this to the Morrows for a Christmas present; Mrs Bradbury stuck it on a shelf and forgot about it.
