Samantha Bower is a bright senior in high school with a bright future ahead of her. She'll be graduating in a few weeks, and then it's off to college, but first there's the prom. Samantha, or Sammy as she likes to be called, has looked forward to going to the prom for as long as she can remember. She's envisioned a night of magic with her boyfriend Mark, and all of their friends. When her strict parents take away her curfew she's sure her dreams will come true. Fate had other ideas. How will the choices she made one night affect the rest of her life? Only time will tell.
