I cheer for the ref. For better or for worse. You know those guys who run up and down a basketball court wearing stripes, blowing a whistle, and getting yelled at by coaches and fans? Well, one of those guys is my guy. The Official Wife is the story about the trials of being married to a basketball referee, having four small children, and finding inner strength as a wife and mother. It's humorous and heartfelt as well as a real life love story. It also gives an insight into the life and career path of a referee.
