You live together, laugh together, borrow her shoes and eyeliner – is there anything you can't share with your sister?

Ellie's younger sister Rose has it all. She's beautiful, stylish and dates gorgeous, glamorous millionaires, while Ellie is quite happy watching TV on the sofa with her old mate Ben. But when Rose brings her new boyfriend home, it's lust at first sight for Ellie. And although she knows it's wrong, everything changes: she'll do whatever it takes to get Oliver, even if it means abandoning her principles and turning a deaf ear to her friends. After all, would it be so wrong to take up running, put some highlights in her hair and make herself look a tiny, little bit more like Rose? But as Ellie follows in her sister's stiletto-heeled footsteps, she realises that finding love could mean losing the most important thing in the world.

It Would Be Wrong to Steal My Sister's Boyfriend... is a warm, witty whirlwind romance. If you're a fan of Tracy Bloom, Pippa Wright and Mhairi McFarlane, you'll love Sophie Ranald.
