The economy and moral structure of America is crumbling, and all are becoming slaves of human knowledge... All around Azariah there are hurting and lonely people, searching for the Truth in their existence... At twenty years of age, he finds himself to be one of these searching people, having only memories of physical abuse from a man that adopted him at a very young age... Suddenly, there are two mysterious siblings who carry the Truth right into Azariah's lonely, pain stricken, and poverty ridden life... Although the horrors of murder, infidelity, abandonment, and unbelief are pressing in on his life from many angles, the enigmatic siblings introduce Azariah to his True heritage and show him a life of love in the battlefield of bodily mortality and spiritual immortality.
