Joe Litchfield, a successful architect, and his brother Danny, a reputable police officer, are immersed head first into a whirlwind mystery filled with suspense, betrayal, and even murder when they come face to face with the illusive Lake Killer.

For years now they have been making the trip down to Summer Breeze Lake to spend the weekend with their Aunt Mary and Uncle Jack. A place of relaxation and much needed rest.

They have made this trip hundreds of times...and they thought this one would be like all the others. Little did they know that they were about to be thrown into a mystery that would change their lives forever.

Author update: Life has steered me down a different path once more, but that's o.k. I'm used to it. I'm pursuing two different directions actually three. I'm trying to continue to make a difference by helping the homeless; looking for a more rewarding job and writing when I can to hopefully pay the income forward to people that need it.

Please continue to be patient with me. Snake island will materialize and many more, including inspirational stories that will touch your innermost emotions and bring you tears of joy.

*If any reader out there knows a good editor that they trust, send them my way.

Sincerely

Randy Goddard
