Today there are literally thousands of public record information sources accessible by anyone with web access. However, which sites are good? Or not so good? This Master Guide to online public records will lead the reader to many diverse and accurate sources of records.

This book goes well beyond a discussion of what is merely found online. The authors share their expertise for conducting online and database research to uncover well-hidden facts and secrets:

- How to perform accurate background checks and how to spot and avoid “red flag” sites with little value
- Advanced strategies to search Social Network sites for hard-to-find public information
- Reveals 14,000+ resources
