I Sold These Poems, Now I Want Them Back Brian Sonia-Wallace

Part wandering minstrel, part skilled artisan, street-merchant Brian Sonia-Wallace offers an exceptional artistic service--he creates poems to order. He asks you a few simple questions-- who the poem is for, and what its subject should be-- and then bashes away at his portable manual typewriter. Ten minutes or so later, you hold in your hand a one-of-a-kind, uniquely crafted poem on a small, oblong slip of paper. It's an indescribably special gift that he shares with you. The poem exists only when it's in your possession.

Brian's book of poetry, I Sold These Poems, Now I Want Them Back, presents a carefully chosen selection of some of those poems he sold or gave away; the ones he made photographic copies of before they disappeared from his sight.
