Earth Connection, Paleotechnics, Rabbitstick Rendezvous, Glass Buttes Knap-In. These are just a few of the schools and events where people from all walks of life awaken to the skills and lifeways of our primitive ancestors. This informative guide includes information about curricula, instructor's backgrounds, and philosophy of each regional school, as well as descriptions, dates, and costs of the primitive gatherings around the country. Attending one of these special events or schools gives one the feeling of the old tribal way of life and refreshes the spirit.

Author J.A. Bigley, retired navy officer, offers the points of interest in each region, giving helpful comments about the schools and sharing his belief that "Aboman lives within each of us. He surfaces whenever someone stops to study a track, picks wildflowers, goes hiking in the rain, or tells stories around a night fire. Whether one's desire is to get back to nature on a full-time basis, or just enjoy a walk in the park, it is our own personal Aboman coming to the forefront, and leading us in that direction."
