My Roommate: Gay Frat Beach House Book 1 Neil Sinclair

Due to a shortage of rooms in the frat's beach house, introverted athlete Ron is forced to share a room with one of his party animal frat brothers. Charlie is a hit with the ladies and the men, and Ron can't seem to hit it off with anyone (though he's aching to make something work). But when one particularly free-spirited girl is interested in both college boys, they are forced to see whether they can come together and share. And when they do, they discover things about each other that will change their minds about the nature of their frat brother relationship forever.
