Have you ever wondered what it entails for the president and the first family to go on vacation? Should the president and the first family be spending the taxpayer's money when there is an economic down turn?

In "Lazy Presidents", we take a look behind the scenes of presidential forays outside of Washington. We'll also focus on the expenses and logistics that are involved, as well. The history of presidential vacations will be explored and some little known (and very interesting) facts will be presented regarding the U.S. presidents and the types of getaways that they preferred throughout the history of the nation. From George Washington to Barack Obama, the variety and scope of presidential vacations has changed over the years and can be seen in the frank and historical presentation found in this book.
