Trick Pony (Show Jumping Dreams ~ Book 11) Claire Svendsen

It's been a tough summer for Emily and her pony Bluebird. Between the beach ride and the hurricane there has been little time for showing and the fact that she didn't make the jumping team has shaken her confidence. She thinks that maybe she's not good enough and worries that her dreams of riding in the Olympics will never come true.

But there are more important things to focus on. The horse community is putting together a show to help raise money to rebuild and everyone is getting involved. Emily thinks that this will be the place to prove she still has what it takes to make it.

So when a secret donor puts up a big chunk of money for the open jumper class, Emily knows she has to win and it's not just about proving she is the best. She wants to use the money to buy the gray horse before his owners decide to put him down. But can Bluebird really win against horses like Hashtag? And with her mother threatening to move the family away from Sand Hill and everything Emily loves, will this be her final show?
