Ellora is one of the cave temple sites, with 34 major Buddhas. The book describes the caves and places them into contrast with other art and iconography. 12 cave tunnel sites, dating from the 7th and 8th centuries, reveal the evolution of the Buddhist mandala in Eastern India. The mandala here is divided into three-dimensional program of the caves themselves, letting worshipers walk through the mandala. A scholarly look at how the mandala evolved.
