How to Build a Relationship with the God of Your Understanding: Part One Start Where You Are Jane Beach

What if you knew for sure that God was real? Not the God you learned about, but a Higher Power that's personal to you? How might your life change? What if you knew that this Higher Power cherishes you just as you are, no matter what terrible things you've done or what your life looks like today? How might your feelings of self-worth shift? How to Build a Relationship with the God of Your Understanding: Start Where You Are uses an easy-to-follow, step-by-step format. The ten chapters in this first of three personal workbooks will move you past God as a "good idea" to an everyday experience of the God of your understanding, whatever He/She/It looks like to you. This is your gateway to your own inner wisdom, ready to guide you to your highest happiness, saying "yes!" to the life you are meant to live. The God of your understanding is alive and well in every aspect of your life, just waiting for your attention. There's a whole new side of you ready to emerge, and it's someone you'll like. Where you are right now is a very good place to start-let's begin!
