In Praise of Simple Pleasures (Grampa Gray Humor Book 2) Grampa Gray

BOOK TWO: Based on a syndicated, newspaper and web-based column by "Grampa Gray" this book takes a playfully philosophic look at modern day society, compared with the 'olden days'. The author employs an interesting combination of prose and old fashioned, bumpity, bump, bump verse. It was written primarily for other members of the gray-haired set (although is appreciated by all ages). It champions old-fashioned values and pokes fun at the author's own foibles and human frailties. Grampa finds beauty and wonder in unique subjects: lint, cobwebs, housework recycling, ants and, of course, growing old. There are a few belly laughs here, but mostly there are chuckles, smiles, nods of understanding, and a magnificent burst of life-affirming endorphins.
