Billionaire Romance: His Big Desire

George Dubray and his family are media darlings. He belongs to the billionaire family that has been responsible for funding and encouraging art and culture in the city. He lives a life of luxury and wants for nothing...or does he? He might have the perfect life and be the most eligible bachelor in town, but is George Dubray happy? Does he have everything he wants or does he have everything he needs?

At the inauguration of a brand new wing at the city's museum, which he has funded; George Dubray literally bumps into a woman who might entirely change his perception of what is missing from his life. He has probably before desired nothing as much as what she now has to offer. Will George be able to resist it or allow his life to spiral out of control? Will he be able to go against his family, the beliefs and etiquette he has been brought up with, just for an instance of passion that he cannot resist? What will the consequences of his actions be?

Will one night at a museum change George's life forever? Or will he walk away from it unscathed?
