Suzanne has never been the teacher's pet, but as a senior in college she's starting to see the appeal in that title. As a beautiful dark-skinned woman, she knows the strong influence that she can have on the opposite sex. She might even get to prove that in a Russian literature course taught by Dr. Anton Reznikov, an intelligent, handsome, and charming college professor. Granted, Suzanne only signed up because it fit into her schedule, and she knows nothing about the subject matter, but she's willing to learn enough to ace the course and hopefully impress Reznikov. Suzanne finds herself falling harder and harder for him with every lecture. She also suspects that he may secretly be a billionaire. She hopes to score some one-on-one time with him, but how will she get his attention in a classroom full of eager women? Suzanne feels compelled to work through her powerful infatuation with Dr. Reznikov, forbidden love or not. Will she become the teacher's pet?
