Kelsea's life has gone to pieces in the last year. She had to over-come the obstacles of being from an immigrant family and a misunderstood culture. She thought that was going to be one of the biggest thing she'd ever have to over come.

Pregnancy was something magical in her mind. She never considered that she'd lose her first baby. After they had to face the reality of losing their first child her marriage fell apart and she found herself alone in the world. When a handsome young, stranger with an even more handsome accent wanders into her world, Kelsea is immediately taken aback and curiosity gets the best of her. Can she overcome her past tragedies and start anew with this stranger?
