What would you do with a Giraffe who cries over every little thing?
And how will you manage to calm Geraldine down?

This sweet children's book is about all this little things that upset Geraldine and make her cry...

Geraldine's Giraffe friend Jeffrey asks:

“When, Geraldine, when will you stop crying over every little thing?”

“Never,” answers Geraldine, “and I don’t cry over every little thing. But when bother some things happen, the tears just come by themselves, and I cry and cry until I have a little puddle of tears at my feet.”

Geraldine looks into her puddle of tears, and what does she see?

You’ll never guess! You’ll probably never believe it... In her puddle of tears, Geraldine sees her best friend in the world, Crockett the toad. Crockett is known for her great wisdom. She always has something wise to say, and she always manages to calm Geraldine down”. If You are wondering how?
