Katie is a wide-eyed girl who is in love with Zeke. She's loved him forever. When he asked her to court him, she was beside herself with happiness. Things are no longer so great for she and Zeke. In fact, everything changed almost overnight.

As Katie tries to figure out how to help Zeke with the problems he faces, she doesn't know where to turn. Zeke has gone into a shell. Her parents think that maybe she should break off their courtship. She feels separated from Gott. She's torn. She's sad.

Zeke tries an unconventional way to deal with his issues on his family farm. He's not worried about being shunned, he just wants to take care of his Mamm and his brothers and sisters. His move is a risky one, but he believes it will pay off.

Find out if Zeke and Katie find a way to bridge the gap between them and make their way back into living Gott's will for their lives.
