AND Because We Love Our Readers – BONUS STORY INSIDE!!!

Martha loved cowboys and cowgirls. She dreamt of becoming a cowgirl when she got a little older. Living in New Jersey her dream is far from coming true. One day she decided to find a job in Texas and pursue her dreams. The Erlite & Co. had scheduled an interview with her and she had to fly alone to appear the next day. She would fly by night and get to meet real cowboys just like one she had seen in western movies and read in so many novels. She just loved the way the cowboys dressed and moved. On the plane she found a young man sitting next to her who was very annoying. He constantly stared at her and smiled at her as if he wanted something from her. She tried to avoid him turning away as much as she could. He even introduced himself as Roger Griffith. He asked her strange questions like her goals in life and what she lived for, etc and it just turned her off. She was happy when the plane parked itself and she got off. There was a twist in the tale. She lands up in the same company where Roger Griffith is one of her bosses. She feels like running away when she sees him but she can't.
