“She moaned and dug her nails in as he slowly, teasingly slid inside the hot passage of her catch. He groaned in her ear and stilled, desperately holding on to his control for several long moments until he began to slowly withdraw. Just as she thought he was about to pull out completely he began to slide back in. Bruce continued this teasing action for a long time, grinning as Charlotte whined for more, more speed, more strength, more thrusting, just anything more. She was almost overcome at the slide of him, feeling his thick width stretching her to the point of pain that slowly eased giving way to intense pleasure.”

- Book Synopsis -

Charlotte is reaching the end of her rope when it comes to dating. Nothing seems to go the way she hopes and when she turns to internet dating it seems her bad luck is set to continue. At the urging of her friends though she gives it one last chance and finally meets the man of her dreams in the form of Bruce Adams, the hunky New Zealander.

Despite weird events happening during their dates — with people thinking he's someone called Graham — Bruce and Charlotte get closer and begin to forge a real relationship, but will Charlotte be able to get over her fears and take their relationship to the next step?

And what's the secret that Bruce is hiding?

Could his secret derail what seems like the perfect union?
