Tierney O'Laughlin is suddenly responsible for her twelve-year-old brother after the death of their parents. The two set off for a fresh start, but quickly run out of money after arriving in a small Colorado town. In order to provide for her younger brother, Tierney makes a desperate decision, one that will change her life forever.

Derek Thornton has been fighting demons for the past six months, since the day he found his fiancé in bed with his best friend. He vows to never trust another woman. Derek finds out that his elderly aunt has hired a beautiful red haired young woman named Tierney. She will be his aunt's assistant and both she and her brother have been invited to live on his ranch. Derek is opposed to the idea. He is certain he has heard Tierney's voice before, but cannot imagine how he would have forgotten the red haired beauty.
