Shadows of Humanity (The Immortal Coil series) Book 2 J. Armand

The darkness stirs. Three years have passed since the Carpathians' failed uprising. Their bloody attempt at revolution left many questions unanswered in the aftermath. Was their attack on mankind a bid for world domination, or a desperate plea for liberation? Just how long can one live in silence under the weight of persecution? Dorian returns to Manhattan after his training with Noah, but he has brought back more than knowledge. A stalking shadow has followed them and is indiscriminately murdering supernaturals in the city. Dorian is reminded of a grim prophecy foretelling an end to all things in a blanket of darkness. Could this be a precursor to something much greater than he and his allies are capable of handling? The darkness is here. But sometimes good things can happen when the lights go out...
