The Ice Chorus Sarah Stonich

After an affair with a painter unravels her family and alters her life forever, filmmaker Liselle Dupre leaves Toronto for the lonely Irish coast to face her future, build a new life, and to heal. In a seaside village cast with beguiling characters, she's taken into the folds of the Conner family, whose humor and uncanny wisdom inspire Liselle to pick up her camera once again. Making a film of their loves and lives, she unearths conflicting accounts of the past and discovers not all histories are what they seem. In telling the stories of others, Liselle realizes it's time to finally reveal own - to recall those loves she has held dear and lost, and to imagine all she might regain. The Ice Chorus is a novel about all we might discover when we face the truth about ourselves. From Sarah Stonich, best-selling author of "These Granite Islands" and "Vacationland", comes "The Ice Chorus"
