Void Mr David Staniforth

A void in one's memory is filled with more than the fear of not knowing, it swirls with the dread of what those missing memories might contain. When a young man awakens in a freezing car, his mind a complete blank, he embarks upon a journey that brings that very dread to the fore. Who is he? What has he done? Where does he belong? Why can he not remember? VOID: a psychological journey of discovery that forces the question: To what extent can our memories be trusted?
