A Short History of Chinese Philosophy Feng Youlan

The draft of ""A Short History of Chinese Philosophy"" was finalized when Feng Youlan was employed at the University of Pennsylvania during 1946-1947. It is the lecture notes of History of Chinese Philosophy, which was published by the American MacMillan Publishing Company in 1948. With more than 200 thousand words, this book tells the history of Chinese philosophy in the last thousands of years in layman's language. It has been not only a common textbook in many universities in the world for Chinese philosophy, but also a introductory book for many westerners to learn more about Chinese ideology and culture.
