THE EXCITING CONCLUSION TO THE DUCHAMPS' DYNASTY SERIES!

Rosalee Davenport is proud and prickly. She's also desperate. Thomas DuChamps had offered to help her save her family's home by turning it into an inn, but that help came with strings... attached to the gorgeous heir, Justin DuChamps. But Justin is more than a pretty face. Artistic, kind, caring, awkwardly endearing, he's a bad boy who reformed himself. He's also determined to help her whether she wants it or not, Rosalee doesn't know what to do with a man who wants to give more than he wants to take.

Justin has battled his demons and, if not won, at least came out on top for the moment. Balance is important to him, in all things. But Rosalee, with her gorgeous curves and kick-butt attitude, throws him off from the get-go. Surrounded by the eccentric Davenport women, possibly contending with a haunted house, and locking horns with a woman who makes his blood boil in every way that counts, Justin hasn't felt so alive in years. He wants to take care of Rosalee, to be her rock when she's been everyone else's for so long... But trust is an issue for her and when her ex comes around, he sees why. Can he convince her that she can trust him enough to lean on him, and that leaning on him won't make her weak? Or will stubborn pride be the downfall for both of them?
