Ashley has finally given up her job as a high class escort, serving the needs of wealthy vampires, at the insistence of her biker boyfriend. Now she is a madam, which he doesn't care for too much either. Not to mention the jealous vampire who has a thing for her man, and the billionaire former client who won't leave her alone, it seems like the world is out to destroy what she's found with Nathan.

At first she thought they were made for each other. She still does, but as cracks begin to form in their relationship, can they weather the storm together, or will they be forced apart forever?
