“He needed no words to seduce me, his eyes were all that was required. What he demanded of me I had never done before, but it was not a request and all I could do was oblige. I had never done the things he asked me to, but I could just not say no.”

Not only did Jill lose her boyfriend today, she also lost her best friend. Unbeknownst to Jill, the two had been sleeping together for months. Talk about a bad day. Jill did not make a great deal of money, so taking a day off to recover, was not an option.

Jill is quickly distracted, when she is asked to clean a mansion, in the nicest part of town. When she meets the homeowner, he is more forward with her than he should be. Not that she minds. He definitely wants more of her, and makes his intentions quite clear.

He is quickly able to seduce her with his charms, he is impossible to resist.
