"People change over distance and time, and one must find out if they can continue to love, despite the changes"

Julia Quispe, living in the small town of Chapala, Mexico, will soon experience a great change in her life: moving to the United States of America.

Stripped of her family, her home and her lover, Julia Quispe will become a completely different person when she arrives, responding to the pain by shelling herself off. So when her ex-lover Roberto Colon decides to go after her, he has no clue who he is going to find.

But things weren't always so complicated. Before Julia's family was raided, she lived a simple, rather romantic life with Roberto. Now, she will experience what it means to love through thick and thin, and the trials one must go through to be reunited with the man she loves.

This story will delve into passion and love, but also the fact that people change over distance and time, and one must find out if they can continue to love, despite the changes.
